SEASON'S GREETINGS

In extending our warmest greetings to all dahlia lovers at the beginning of another dahlia season:

We trust the past season brought happiness to you and that your dahlias were a success.

We hope you are now planning a larger garden for 1936 and will enjoy growing the new novelties.

We want to thank you for your generous patronage. To the newcomer and prospective customer, we solicit your patronage and assure you that your orders will receive personal attention.

A trial order will convince you that our stock is not forced for show blooms.

We are happy to say that we won a Silver Cup for the best 100 sq. ft. Commercial Display at the Mid-West Dahlia show, held in Cleveland, September 14, 1935. Also an Achievement Medal for the most outstanding commercial display of the show.

Won our share of ribbons at the Akron Dahlia Show.

If you want to enjoy reading a good Dahlia magazine, subscribe for the Mid-West Dahlia News, to 170 Talmadge Street, Madison, Wisconsin. We are sure you will be anxious to get the next issue.

1936 AMERICAN AND EUROPEAN NOVELTIES

ANDRE CSIZIK S. C. (FOREIGN) Well formed flowers of a deep violet rose color, free flowering, good stems. Winner Silver Cup for the best Dutch Cactus. Plants—$1.00

ALBRECHT VON REGENSTEIN DEC. (FOREIGN) This variety is of a splendid bright golden orange color with pink white tips. The backsides of the blossoms-leaves are of a dark rich red, they seem therefore to be flown through by a blood-red color. It is a coloring which you will up to the present never have found or met with. The effect of this combination of color is very, very harmonizing and may therefore be called a variety of striking beauty. It gained the mark "GOOD" from the German Dahlia Society. Plants—$5.00

ANDENKEN AN WILHELM LINDENSMIT S. C. (FOREIGN) Giant semi-cactus with fine color, salmon on light cream ground, with lacinated tips. The blooms are carried on long, strong stems, very free above the plants. On Mr. Hart's 1936 Honor Roll. Plants—$3.50

ANDENKEN AN WALTER HAKER S. C. (FOREIGN) Giant semi-cactus, chrome yellow, on ideal stems. About 11 inches in diameter. Plants—$4.00

AUFGEHENDES LICHT S. C. (FOREIGN) A large semi-cactus. Color bright yellow suffused terra-cotta with a darker center. Plants—$3.00

ADORABLE I. D. (BATTO) At the Beacon, New York, Show this year, a high-quality show, a basket of Adorable won as the Best Dahlia Exhibit in the show, as well as best bloom in show. Certificate of Merit at Storrs in 1931. A luscious combination of peach-pink and gold. It is a beautiful flower in the garden, or in an arrangement. On Mr. Hart's 1936 Honor Roll. Plants—$2.50

ANNELIESE ROTH S. C. (FOREIGN) Color, dark red. Plants—$2.50

BAERNE S. C. (FOREIGN) This beautiful variety is the winner of a Dutch Cup. Color old pink with a soft deep salmon glow, a pure Semi-Cactus Dahlia with excellent stems, free flowering well above the foliage. A variety for exhibitions. Plants—$5.00

BALLEGO'S SURPRISE IN. C. (FOREIGN) No doubt this variety is one of the finest and best novelties of the season. The flowers have a real Hybrid Cactus form, they entirely resemble those of the variety "Frau O' Bracht" and have a pure white color. Specially suitable for cut flower, because they remain fresh for a long time, also for exhibitions. Awarded Certificate of Merit at England and Holland trial gardens. Plants—$5.00

BALLEGO'S GLORY F. D. (FOREIGN) Mahogany color with golden edges, free flowering extra for cutting purposes, lasts long, very early bloomer. Plants—$1.00

BETTY STONE POM (BADETTY BROS.) A fine growing variety with attractive foliage that sets off the rich blooms. Plants—$0.50

- BERGER'S JEWEL STR. C. (FOREIGN) Rich lilac pink shade with blue suffusion at the base, tips nearly white. Stems are long and strong, holding the blooms well over the plants. A real acquisition which will be immensely popular. On Mr. Johnson's 1936 Honor Roll.
Plants—$2.50
- BAUERS IDEAL I. D. (FOREIGN) Enormous large flowers of a particular deep glowing red. Free flowering; and extraordinary dahlia for the garden. Winner Silver Cup for the best foreign dahlia. Plants—$2.50
- COOMBELANDS HYBRID, C. (FOREIGN) A most wonderful variety of exquisite and unique coloring, being amber yellow, decidedly tinted with salmon, one of the most favored introductions. The flowers are of unequalled Hybrid Cactus form, carried correct on strong wiry stems.
Plants—$3.75
- CORNCRAKE CACTUS (FOREIGN) Another typical true Cactus, having petals narrow from tip to base, and neatly incurved. Color bright yellow deepening to light orange. Plants have an erect wiry growth and flower stem. Always full in center and good throughout the season. Selected for Trial at Wisley, England.
Plants—$5.00
- CAVALIER PAEONY (FOREIGN) Color crimson, heavily tipped with white. Large flowers, good stems.
Plants—$1.00
- CALIFORNIA PEACH S. C. (BALLY-SUCCESS) A grand Dahlia of real distinction and beauty. Winner of the Achievement Medal in Boston, and a Dahlia that will make a high record of winning, because of its size and distinction. You can get a perfect idea of this flower if you imagine Satan in a clear coral-pink. On Mr. Hart's, Mr. Johnson's, Mr. Barron's and Mr. Eldredge's 1936 Honor Rolls. Plants—$7.50 Net.
- DULCINEA ST. C. (FOREIGN) Has a very bright pure cardinal red color, we may recommend this Dahlia as one which shall win many prizes in 1936. An extraordinary fine color, free flowering with long and strong stems, an excellent keeper and cut flower, don't miss and order this one. We are sure that you shall love it too. Award of Merit at Haarlem, Holland; On Mr. Eldredge's 1936 Honor Roll.
Plants—$3.00
- DUTSCHE SAAR I. D. (FOREIGN) Sport of Frau O' Bracht, broad petals with slightly curled points, an outstanding form, light yellow changing into white towards the edge and sulphur yellow in the center.
Plants—$2.50

---

OSTERGRUSS S. C. (FOREIGN) This white flower with strong stems is excellent for forcing purposes. Plants—$2.50

OBERAMMERGAU S. C. (FOREIGN) A white sport of Frau O' Bracht. A giant Cactus of same size, habits, stems and growth as Frau O' Bracht. Color, ivory white. Plants—$5.00

OTTO VON SCHLUMBERGER I. D. (FOREIGN) A great dahlia from Germany. Enormous soft lilac color. Plants—$1.50

O. S. U. I. F. (BUELL) A novelty which appears to be scarlet and gray. The light reverse shows as artistic pedals twist and turn showing the two colors. It was at the suggestion of a student from Ohio State University that Mr. Buell named this O. S. U. for the University colors. Good foliage, good stems and face good. I know you will like it.
Roots—$10.00 Plants—$5.00

PINK CHAMPION DEC. (FOREIGN) A brilliant bright rose flower. We recommend this variety for cutting purposes and for exhibitions. Plants—$2.50

PINK DAILY MAIL DEC. (FOREIGN) This attractive variety is from British origin. The perfect formed flowers have a beautiful lilac-pink color on a white ground. Watch this variety at the exhibitions; undoubtedly a brilliant prize-winner, long and strong stems. On Mr. Johnson's 1936 Honor Roll. Plants—$3.00

PETUNIA CACTUS (FOREIGN) This English novelty is the finest raised for years. It is a plant full of vigor, throwing up rod-like stems with amazing ease. Every flower comes good to the end of the season. The color is unique in Cactus, a beautiful lilac. It keeps for a long period when cut, and is a great acquisition for the garden or exhibition. The winner two years in succession of the Silver Cup, for the best stemmed narrow petalled true Cactus Dahlia at the N. D. S. Show. Plants—$5.00

PEACH BLOSSOM CACTUS (FOREIGN) When we term this a co ossa Cactus we are not exaggerating. The huge flowers are wonderful and are made up of very long narrow tubular petals which incurve and interlace. The color, too, is beautiful, being shades of peach pink. A bunch of six of this variety exhibited by Mr. Stredwick, the originator, at the N. D. S. Show, was the loveliest bunch we ever put up of Cactus Dahlias. Plants—$5.00

PINK SPIRAL INC. C. (FOREIGN) A beautiful Holland novelty. The color is peach blossom-pink with a touch of primrose at the base and the center of the flower. The petals have a tendency not only to incurve, but to form a complete spiral arrangement around the center. On Mr. Hart's and Mr. Johnson's 1936 Honor Rolls.
Roots—$5.00 Net Plants—$2.50

PRACHTKERL S. C. (FOREIGN) This German novelty created a sensation at the Mid-West Show at Cleveland. It is a seedling of Frau O'Bracht, but of a deeper yellow and of larger size. It is a Dahlia of nearly perfect form, and bids fair to duplicate its illustrious parent in American show rooms and gardens. On Mr. Hart's and Mr. Eldredge's 1936 Honor Rolls.
Plants—$2.50

PRIDE OF AUSTINBURG I. D. (STRASEN) Certificate of Merit at Storrs and East Lansing, 1935. Winner in the Show Seedling Contest and named officially at the Mid-West Show at Cleveland. Also a blue-ribbon winner at Milwaukee, 1935. The color is a bright pink suffused with light yellow. The center of the flower and the reverse of the Petals are a rich rose. The blooms average well over 10 inches through the season. The plant is a strong open grower, with splendid stems. A profuse bloomer. On Mr. Hart's and Mr. Eldredge's 1936 Honor Rolls.
Roots—$10.00 Plants—$5.00

PIONEER CITY BONFIRE F. D. (BUELL) A seedling from Girl of Hillcrest. Color, bonfire red. Healthy leathery foliage. 4½ to 5 feet excellent stems and faces just right; a splendid keeper. Only time shown in competition at the recent Akron, Ohio, Show, where it captured the blue ribbon in the undisseminated class. You will want this one in your garden.
Plants—$5.00 Net

QUEEN CITY F. D. (PECK) A Dahlia of great distinction, with a remarkable record for the season. Winner as Best Keeper in the Undisseminated Varieties at the Mid-West Show at Cleveland; also as Best Formal Undisseminated Variety at Mid-West Show at Cleveland and at Cincinnati. Winner of Ohio Dahlia Society Achievement Medal at Cincinnati, and the Achievement Medal at the Indiana Dahlia Show at Columbus, Indiana. Also outstanding at East Lansing and at the New York Botanical Gardens. Like Buckeye Bride, it is a splendid open grower. It blooms throughout the entire season. The color is a distinctive pink, a shade halfway between cherry-red and old-rose. Good cut-flower. On Mr. Hart's, Mr. Barron's and Mr. Eldredge's 1936 Honor Rolls.
Plants—$5.00 Net

ROYAL PURCHASE INC. C. (SALEM) Color, yellow; outer petals suffused pink; blooms 10 to 11½ inches, field grown; the petals twist and turn, giving the big blooms a most pleasantly shaggy appearance; a long and straight stem; a profuse bloomer, blooms held high out of a clean bush. Winner of blue ribbons at Chicago and New York shows. On Mr. Eldredge's 1936 Honor Roll. Plants—$7.50

ROYAL BLACK S. C. (FOREIGN) Everybody who saw this variety at the show admired it for its extraordinary color. A chestnut-brown tint with a lively glow. Award of Merit at Haarlem. If you want a new and brilliant color, order this one. Plants—$5.00

RHEINISCHES MADEL S. C. (FOREIGN) A beautiful lilac-violet, white tipped. Extra for cutting. Plants—$2.50

REMARKABLE DEC. (FOREIGN) The flowers have an unique fiery red color, the long petals largely tipped white. Was greatly admired at all exhibitions, large flowers are held perfectly erect on long, straight and strong stems well above the foliage. Indeed a very remarkable dahlia. Plants—$2.50

R. P. RUTHERFORD S. C. (FOREIGN) A grand Dahlia. It is a huge flower neatly made up of bluntly pointed florets evenly arranged. Color, golden orange, flushed, veined and deepening to red. Dwarf plants, surprisingly free blooming. Splendid stems. On Mr. Johnson's 1936 Honor Roll. Plants—$2.50

REICHARDT'S TRIUMPH S. C. (FOREIGN) A fine companion to his Masterpiece, a large semi incurved Cactus of a rich color combination, purple violet, lighted white. Plants—$5.00

REICHARDT'S IDEAL CACTUS (FOREIGN) Color terracotta gold with lilac over-tones, tipped yellow. Lacinated petals. Strong stiff stems. An outstanding Dahlia. Plants—$5.00

RHEINFISCHER S. C. (FOREIGN) Exceptionally large flowers. Color light salmon. This attractive variety is from German origin. Greatly admired. Plants—$2.50

RIESEN DIAMANT CACTUS (FOREIGN) Large cactus variety. Color cream with white ground. Greatly admired. Plants—$3.00

RUDOLF'S GIANT I. D. (RUDOLF-RUSCHMOHR) One of the real giants of the dahlia world, good exhibition flower. The color is a clear golden-apricot with flushes of pastel-pink and golden-tan throughout. This Dahlia received a Certificate of Merit at Storrs in 1934, and won as the Best Undissemated Informal at the Rockville Centre Show in 1935. On Mr. Hart's, Mr. Johnson's, and Mr. Eldredge's Honor Rolls. Plants—$7.50 Net

RED VICTOR I. D. (STRASEN) A beautiful novelty. It is not a tremendously large flower but can be grown easily to exhibition size. The color is an unusual shade of rose-red, and under artificial light is a sparkling, brilliant flower. The plant is a nice clean grower, and free bloomer. On Mr. Hart's Honor Roll. Roots—$10.00 Plants—$5.00

- REICHARDT'S MASTERPIECE INC. C. (FOREIGN) The most distinctive of all the foreign Dahlias shown this year. Greatly admired in our display at the Mid-West Show at Cleveland. No other color combination just like it; a clear canary-yellow with about one-third of the petal of clear amethyst. The effect is very pleasing and certainly most unusual. A very good exhibition Dahlia. On Mr. Hart's 1936 Honor Roll.
Roots—$5.00 Net Plants—$2.50
- RED JUG S. C. (PREAS-RUSCHMOHR) Certificate of Merit at Storrs this year. Winner of the American Home Achievement Medal at the West Virginia Show in 1934; in 1935, winner as Best Undisseminated Semi-cactus at Rockville Centre, and Camden, and also a blue ribbon winner at the Mid-West Show at Cleveland. An outstanding Dahlia. The color is a dark cardinal-red, sometimes with gold tips both at center and the ends of the petal. On Mr. Hart's, Mr. Johnson's, and Mr. Eldredge's 1936 Honor Rolls.
Plants—$5.00 Net
- RIELE S. C. (FOREIGN) Color, rose with cream center. Plants—$2.50
- ROYAL ROBE I. D. (PARRELLA) An exhibition type of a rich royal purple with silvery reverse; like Jane Cowl. On Mr. Hart's 1935 Honor Roll, and in 1936 on Mr. Eldredge's Honor Roll.
Roots—$7.50 Plants—$3.75
- SAARLANDS HEIMKEHR ST. C. (FOREIGN) A German cactus Dahlia of regular form and beautiful color, glowing salmon pink with fine amethyst overtone. Long, strong stems. Plants—$2.50
- SACHSENLAND S. C. (FOREIGN) A wonderful Dahlia. Semi-cactus, pure, old gold with luminous orange. Ideal stems. Plants—$3.00
- SCHONE BAUERIN CACTUS (FOREIGN) Color purple carmine with white tips. Fine stems and good size blooms. Plants—$3.00
- SACRED FIRE I. D. (FOREIGN) A giant. Color, lively cherry red. The growth is strong and the stems are similar to those on Frau O' Bracht. The roots are exceptionally fine keepers. A truly magnificent exhibition Dahlia.
Roots—$3.00 Plants—$1.50
- SCHLOSS NEUSCHWANSTEIN CACTUS (FOREIGN) A beautiful cactus with long and strong stems. An excellent pink color. Plants—$5.00

SHEKINAH S. C. (CURTIS REDFERN) A beautifully formed pink that has compiled an enviable record. Shown but three times, it has won first each time. It won first as a seedling and this year was awarded the trophy of the City of San Francisco as the best individual bloom of a Dahlia in the show of the Dahlia Society of California. The plant is a sturdy grower and produces blooms from ten inches up, with great depth. On Mr. Hart's, Mr. Johnson's, Mr. Barron's and Mr. Eldredge's 1936 Honor Rolls. Plants—$12.50 Net

SAMARKAND I. D. (CURTIS REDFERN) Beautiful cerise rose colored flower. This large dahlia is the exact replica of Bagdad except in its color. Samarkand will win as enviable a place in the hearts of dahlia enthusiasts as has Bagdad. Plants—$7.50

SARA KAY S. C. (HUNT-BURNETT BROS.) This was one of the outstanding dahlias in the New York Show. Mr. Hart believes it was the runner up to Milton J. Cross in the Achievement Medal Class. The color is rich golden-yellow on a large, long-petalled flower. The plant grows to six feet, and the normal size of the flower is 9 to 10 inches. On Mr. Hart's, Mr. Johnson's and Mr. Barron's 1936 Honor Rolls. Plants—$5.00

TRIOMPHE DE PARIS MIN. C. (FOREIGN) The brilliant formed flowers have a splend'd bright orange-red color with yellow base and yellow tipped petals. Do you want an excellent dahlia for the garden, as well as a perfect cutflower? Take this one; very free flowering, much admired, good strong stems carry the flowers well out of the foliage. Plants—$2.50

TYRUS ST. C. (FOREIGN) A very attractive variety. The middle-sized flowers have a good Cactus form and a lively dark magenta-rose color. The stems are strong. Very rich flowering. Plants—$1.25

TROPIC SUN S. C. (FOREIGN) Its color is similar to Flaming Torch but the tint is now pure orange. The large flowers are perfectly held erect on long straight and strong stems well above the green foliage. An excellent variety for cutting purposes. Plants—$5.00

TOM MANNING I. D. (WIND) An exhibition type; color, old rose center, outer petals ochraceous salmon blending into warm buff; a sport of Monmouth Champion with all its characteristics. An ideal variety for the garden. On Mr. Eldredge's 1936 Honor Roll. Root—$7.50 Plant—$3.75

VOLKSKANZLER SINGLE (FOREIGN) Seldom a single dahlia has met with such a success as this one. The design of the flowers is very unique indeed, viz.: peculiar salmon red with a dark brown to bright red ring in the center. When cut the flowers remain fresh for many days, they can be cut when half open. Selected for trial Garden at England, Award of Merit. Plants—$2.50

VOIT'S LIEBLING S. C. (FOREIGN) Color, pink with red. Plants—$2.50

---

WHITE ABUNDANCE DEC. (FOREIGN) A dahlia with enormous gigantic flowers of a beautiful pure white, the flowers are held on strong erect stems well out of the foliage; an excellent white variety for exhibitions as well as for the garden; rich flowering; one of the best dahlias of Dutch origin. Award of Merit at Amsterdam, France, and Belgium. Certificate at Haarlem. On Mr. Eldredge's 1936 Honor Roll.

Plants—$3.00

WORLD WONDER S. C. (FOREIGN) A hit amongst hits. Color similar to Frau O' Bracht. The center of the bloom is sulphur yellow shading down to creamy yellow towards the edge of the petals. The stems are very long and strong. The formation is like a huge chrysanthemum. Very free flowering.

Plants—$2.50
